

My Top 63 + 1 List of Favorite Artists
Part 01

Seems it is still the season(s) to be making subjective, only-on-my-radar, rather incomplete über lists of favorite artists, publishing them on public yet somewhat hierarchical blogs (I mean this in the most genial and technical of terms), in order to either further one's own agenda, associate one's self with genius, or to seem "tuned in" to the newest, hottest finest young cannibals...oh, I mean artists. Therefore, I offer a list of my own, sent out into the ether, in order to establish a most gross pecking order of importance within the art world (as if it wasn't already there, but hey...). Sorry. I just couldn't resist jumping on the bandwagon...
